About 1 April 1952 Frana Pakosta arrived from Prague to become editor-in-chief of Videnski Mensinove Listt, Czech Communist newspaper in Vienna, a post which he had held between 1945 and 1949. Since 1949 Pakosta has served as editor-in-chief of Czech colovenski Svet, publication of the Czech Foreign Institute in Prague II. Among the members of the Czech minority in Vienna it is rumored that Pakosta has returned to institute a burge amongst the personnel of Videnski Mensinove Listi. It is expected that Pakosta till work in close cooperation with the Czech Legation since the newspaper is financed largely from Legation funds.
